

Uwe Matzat works as an Assistant Professor in Human-Technology-Interaction. He received his Ph.D. in 2001 at the Interuniversity Center for Social Science Theory and Methodology (ICS) at the University of Groningen (NL). In 1996 he received his Diploma in Sociology at the University of Duisburg (Germany). His current research interests include Learning Analytics, blended learning, virtual agents, the digital divide, and social media research.